Charles Wedell Does Not Want to Go to the Asylum.

He declares that it is not insanity but inebriety that has placed him where he is.

Wedell lives on East Seventeenth street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues. He has been going the "pace" for months and now his only thoughts are for the hoped that he has taken through his lips. He has been in the hospital for 15 days. Before his incarceration he carried a pipe and often made threats that he would kill his patient with it. His condition finally became such that the doctors decided that the safest policy would be to confine him in an asylum.

"Now he sits in his cell at the hospital awaiting the examination tomorrow. He tirelessly counts the bottles on the walls and ceiling.

"One cork, two corks, three corks, four corks," and so on he counts the living corks, and he counts the bottles on the walls and ceiling.

"How do you feel this morning?" asked the doctor.

"Take three corks and 20 cents," replied the imbecile as he renewed his counting.

HOW THE CANAL WILL BE DUG.

Within limits, we now know just about what will be done. The bottom width of the cut will be 200 feet and the depth forty feet. The Suez Canal, averaging 115 feet wide at the bottom and permitting a draft of only twenty-seven feet ten inches, has been a great canal. Several of the world's great battleships of the British navy can now go through it only with hazard, and none of the larger freighters fully loaded, such as have proved most economical for the transatlantic trade, could go through. Even the larger passenger liners would be cramped and often lose their stowage way and sheer against the sides. The Panama Canal will be able to admit even larger ves-

lock—near Miraflores, and possibly one at Bohio, to reduce excavation.—

GRAFT AND GRAFTERS ARE GIVEN "ROAST"

James B. Dill Delivers Scathing Rebuke to Certain Classes of Men and Women.

OBERLIN, O., June 28.—James B. Dill of New York, in the course of an address to the graduating class of Oberlin College, today delivered a scathing rebuke to men who misuse positions of honor and trust for purposes of personal gain.

In urging his hearers to "go back to beginnings," Mr. Dill contended that "grafting," which was foreign to the true American character, had been developed by the mad rush for wealth and the recognition of false standards by educated men in the competitive struggle for business power and social prominence.

FEELING OF DISTRUST.
"A large part of our modern prosperity," he said, "is to a perilously large extent bottled upon an overproduction of fraud and sham. The crisis is acute. A feeling of distrust is growing throughout the country. Many branches of financial business have been in one way or another taken possession of by the unscrupulous for the purpose of deceiving the unwary. Trust companies have been the mediums for the flotation of specious and fraudulent promotion."

"Some companies in the field of life, the highest and in a sense a sacred form of investment, are, as we all know now, conducted through which the savings of policy holders are diverted into the operations of speculative purposes."

"Credit and good faith, not money, are the basis of business. Good or bad, our modern prosperity is founded on public confidence. Take that away and the whole fabric falls."

CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY.

"The fact is that the unprecedented material growth of the country, the resulting creation of immense private fortunes, the massing of great aggregations of corporate capital, industrial combinations and industrial mergers, have all tended to concentrate the attention of the people on great financial achievements and to establish in the highest place in the public estimation the captains of industry and the powerful financiers. Little regard being paid, in making up the judgment, to the financial virtues of private individual life."

ABOUT GRAFTERS.
"Now, whose fault is this?" It is ours. It is the fault of public opinion and public opinion is our opinion, yours and mine—yours of me, mine of you, ours of all the rest. We have to learn to recognize graft and the grafters—however respectable their disguises—and to punish them not alone by imprisonment and fine, but with all the might of the terrible scorn of society. We have to recognize that the seeds of Socialism, revolution and anarchy are sown by the man of our own class and kind, who pretends to be what he is not—these seeds are cultivated by the grafting bank officer, insurance officer, man in power in financial organizations, in short, every grafter who in his dealings with the public deports openly or secretly from old-fashioned Ten-Commandment honesty."

CAUSE OF EVILS.

"This indictment of our business life is not based upon an inherent, incurable defect in our American character, but on the contrary these evils are an outgrowth of our American strenuousness in the riotous race for the dollar and the many dollars. In the hearts of the genuine men and women of our country there is an appreciation of the importance of character, the rank and file of the American people not only believe in, but also stand for right living and a conscience undimmed and unfettered by business environments."

"Therefore, right and honesty will triumph, a saturnalia of graft and an era of grab will find itself short lived, speedily to be ended by the uplifting influences of educated men and women of character."

WOMAN DECLARES SHE'S A LADY

It does not always pay to get one's husband home at night as Mrs. Theodor Salgard, who was before Police Judge Smith this morning on a charge of disturbing the peace because of that fact, will testify.

According to her own story, she was engaged in the ungrateful task of lugging her legs and master along the streets toward her home, when Policeman Thorwald Brown, who has a religious streak in him, appeared on the scene.

The husband's stubbornness was not exceeded by that of the mule. He protested with great business against being taken home while there were yet bottles to be drained. Mrs. Salgard finally lost patience with the creature and the statement that she was a lady driver was made by a mule driver.

Policeman Brown is the author of his obstinate bias. The creature of the statement that the language was shocking but Mrs. Salgard witheringly replies to the accusation of the peace officer that she is a lady.

Judge Smith did not have time to hear her this morning so continued it until July 5.

CITY OFFICIALS MUST PAY UP

County Assessor Dalton this morning dropped a bombshell in the ranks of the city politicians scattering them in all directions. The bombshell contained 133 garnishments for the police. There were 22 employees in the police department and 99 in the other departments who had failed to pay their Uncle Henry Dalton and as a result all of their salaries this month will have a little less plaster on them than usual.

There were murmurs and mutterings among the faithful around the city. Just why Henry should take $2 of their vacation money they could not quite comprehend.

BRAVE MEN SAVE TWO WOMEN BATHERS.

SEASIDE, Ore., June 28.—But for the bravery of two North Dakota men, two young women of Portland would have drowned while bathing in the surf near Locksley Hall. Their heroism was more remarkable in that they could not swim a stroke.

While Miss Ella Young and her sister Mrs. Arthur Young were enjoying the bath of the surf near their cottage, the River View at about 2:30 Miss Young stepped into a depression in the sand and instinctively grasped her sister, dragging her under the water also.

Walter J. Smith and John P. Van Allen of New Rockford, N. D., enjoying their first sight of the sea, were keeping nearer the shore. When they saw the women in distress they plunged into the surf and after a great struggle brought the fair bathers ashore.

Mr. Beach announced after a careful investigation of the evidence he had decided to take no further steps looking to the trial of these persons and asked that the indictments be dismissed.

It is supposed that the women retired for the night, leaving a small jet of gas burning which a rush of air extinguished, releasing the deadly gas, which suffocated them.

AT BYRON SPRINGS. The automobile road from Oakland to Byron Hot Springs still retains its popularity. The roads were well oiled last season making them at the present time entirely free from dust.

The trip can be made from Oakland via Hayward, Dublin and Livermore, and a still finer road may be found via Hayward, Niles, thence via Elgin, Hayward and Livermore, about fifty-three miles in all. The run home may be varied by the road through Antioch, Walnut Creek and over the "Golden Road" to Oakland.

A number of auto enthusiasts have already expressed their intention of spending the Fourth of July at Byron Hot Springs and many more are expected. Among the auto parties at the springs during the past week were: Mr. C. Phillips, J. C. Lewis and wife, and S. F. Lewis from Oakland; Dr. P. F. Jackson, A. J. Snyder, J. B. John, Alfred S. Among the prominent arrivals were Dr. Thomas W. Leland, Dr. L. D. Bingham, Senator S. P. Bord, J. Cal. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Bennett, Mr. Leon Blum and Mr. and Mrs. Judson C. Brusio.

Mr. E. G. Wheeler came over on his Pope Toledo, accompanied by Mr. E. R. Ridley, Miss Koussaly, and Miss M. Mitchell.

FIRE RAGING UP NORTH.

SEATTLE, June 28.—Fire is raging on Spruce of Wales Island and many of the residents of the small settlements have fled to the shores of the Southeastern Alaska from which the island is separated by Clarence Straits. For safety the fire started more than a week ago at the Northern extremity of the island and fanned by the winds from the ocean has swept over nearly the entire length of the Eastern shore southward.

Such is the report brought to Seattle this evening by the officers of the Alaska Steamship Company's steamer Dolphin which reached port shortly after 7 o'clock. According to their report no rain has fallen on the island for a month, and the forests of Alaska are so dry as to furnish the finest kind of fuel for the flames.

DECLARE GIRL IS INSANE

SAY THAT SHE THREATENED TO KILL A WOMAN.

Cora Theilmann, a 19-year-old girl who has given the authorities trouble for the last seven years, is confined at the Receiving Hospital and will be examined tomorrow by the Lunacy Commission. Her neighbors think that she is weak minded and that at any time she may become violent.

The young woman is a daughter of M. C. Theilmann, a bookkeeper employed in San Francisco, and lives with her parents at East Eleventh street and Seventh avenue. The charges of insanity were preferred by Robert Morse, a neighbor, who alleges that Miss Theilmann threatened to kill Mrs. Jessie Schulte, another neighbor. The two women will be the principal witnesses against the girl.

Miss Theilmann has been suffering from fits of temporary insanity ever since she was 12 years old.

She was arrested May 29th of this year for throwing stones at lost white dogs of neighbors, but was not prosecuted.

DIME SAVING MAN SAYS HE IS BANKRUPT.

NEW YORK, June 28.—To the astonishment of his sister and friends, who believed him to be operating a gold mine in California, Benjamin H. Huntington, formerly president of the Dime Savings Bank of Brooklyn, today filed in the United States District Court a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. The whereabouts of Huntington is unknown to his family and friends. It is known whether his young wife, to whom he was married in the West a few months ago, is with him. The details of how he lost his big fortune is not known to his family.

Huntington was twenty-five years closely identified with the Dime Savings Bank, and was for several years its president. When a year ago he returned from the presidency he was reputed to be wealthy. Soon after he announced his intention of going West to prospect for gold mines. Not many months after he went West Huntington wrote to his sister that he had married a young woman and that he was happy and prosperous. He again wrote to this sister, declaring his intention of returning to this city very soon. That was the last heard from him by any member of his family.

Huntington's sister said today that she did not know Huntington was in this city. When told he had filed a petition in bankruptcy, she exclaimed: "Ben hasn't lost all his fortune, has he? How could he have done it?"

The supposition is that Huntington lost his money in gambling. Huntington lost his money in gambling. Huntington lost his money in gambling. Huntington lost his money in gambling. Huntington lost his money in gambling.

THOUSANDS OF BANANAS HAVE GONE TO WASTE.

HONOLULU, June 28.—When the steamship Enterprise sailed from Hilo for San Francisco on her last trip she left behind, for lack of space, nearly 2000 bunches of bananas. These will be almost a total loss to the shippers, as there is no local market and no steamship to transport them to the coast. Efforts were made to have the surplus shipped via Honolulu to the Alameda, but arrangements could not be made. No blame attaches to the Matson Navigation Company, as Agent Charles H. Carver, who was in charge of the bananas, had reserved space only for 7000 bunches, but when the trainloads of fruit arrived the warehouse was deluged. The loss falls principally on the Hilo Matson Company, Limited, and some of the largest Japanese shippers.

It has since been discovered that the latter have been shipping undersized and unsaleable fruit, many of the bunches of bananas left behind being overripe and others found in a state of decay and decomposition. Some bunches of good size, when stripped of the wrappings, were found to contain two and sometimes more small bunches which have no marketable value.

GRAIN DEPARTMENT TO HAVE HOLIDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The grain department of the Merchants' Exchange has decided to adjourn Friday afternoon, the 30th, until Wednesday morning, July 5.

CASE CONTINUED.

The trial of the misdemeanor charge of embezzlement preferred against R. Reese, a German capitalist, by Mrs. A. L. Astor, secretary of the Western Dredging Company, was continued by Police Judge Smith this morning until August 10. Reese is accused of stealing the minute book of the company. The directors of the corporation are at odds and a desire to get hold of the papers and documents of the company is at the bottom of the trouble.

PROPOSE TERMS OF PEACE

Constitutionalist Party Name Them in Resolution.

TOKIO, June 28, 6 p. m.—The committee of the Constitutionalist party, of which Marquis Saionji is president, met today and passed the following resolution:

"The Constitutionalist party, since the outbreak of the war, frequently has published its convictions, for the sake of realizing the aim and purpose of the war, by proving the national unity of feeling."

"Now that the question of concluding peace has been brought up though it is necessary to state the terms of peace in detail, we yet deem it necessary and opportune to declare that, for the sake of realizing the aim and purpose of the war, as stated at the declaration of hostilities, and also for the sake of securing a further guarantee in the interest of our empire, as well as for placing peace in the extreme East on a permanent basis, the cessation of territory and the repayment of the outlays caused by the war be demanded and the Korean and Manchurian questions definitely and clearly settled."

The leaders of the Constitutionalist party, after taking this action, interviewed Premier Katsura and presented the resolution.

TOKIO, June 28, 6:30 p. m.—A manifesto published today by the Progressive party is practically identical with the resolution adopted by the Constitutionalist. It contains, however, the following additional points: which the party desires to have incorporated in the peace agreement.

"Forbid Russia to raise works for warlike use in localities where Japan's interests might be menaced. Compel Russia to relinquish the privileges she has enjoyed in Manchuria, to refrain from future interference with the Manchurian question, and pledge herself to undertake no measure deemed to be menacing to peace or the interests of the frontiers of China."

NEGRO WASH-WOMAN CALLS ON PRESIDENT.

Did His Laundry Work While He Was Attending Harvard College.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 28.—President Roosevelt today sent the following cablegram to Emperor William:

"I have just been visiting at Harvard University and the Germanic Museum, the foundation of which we so largely owe to your interest. I take this occasion to thank you and the German people for many acts of courtesy and kindness which in recent years have steadily brought closer together the German and American peoples. This growing friendship between the two nations means much for the future welfare of mankind, and I wish to thank you personally for the efforts you have made to foster it."

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 28.—The second day of President Roosevelt's visit to Harvard College to participate in the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the graduation of his class, that of 1880, included a varied program.

The President was to deliver the principal address at the alumni dinner and in addition was to participate in a number of festivities mostly of a private nature.

The President spent a restful night and among the earliest of his visitors today was Mary A. Taylor, the colored woman who did the President's washing while he was at college.

After having breakfast at the home of Bishop William Lawrence, the President was driven to Massachusetts Hall, in front of which ancient structure the commencement procession was formed. The President was accompanied by Lieutenant-Governor Guild, who represented Governor Douglas, the latter being ill.

COMMENCEMENT.
At the theater, the commencement parts were given as follows:

"Latin Salutatory," B. A. Moore; "A Misunderstood Party," E. E. Brown, "Public Evening Schools," G. C. Hubbard; "The Italian in America," J. D. R. Storey; "The Spirit of the Present South," W. A. Lambeth.

DECLARES CREDIT BELONGS TO DEMOCRACY.

"Roosevelt Sowing Democratic Seed in Democratic Soil," Says Democrat.

COLUMBUS, O., June 28.—After an exciting contest, in which eight candidates participated actively, John M. Pattison, a Cincinnati business man whose home is Milford, a suburb of Cincinnati, was today nominated as the Democratic candidate for Governor. Two ballots were had, the second showing a bare majority. The nomination was then made unanimous.

Senator Louis B. Houck, of Knox county, was then chosen for Lieutenant Governor.

The announcement of the resignation of John R. McLean as national committeeman for Ohio and the contest in the committee on resolutions were the exciting features of the convention.

For the nominations for Governor, the names of Lawrence T. Neal, J. M. Pattison, J. C. Wells, Brand Whitlock, R. F. McCann, Hiram D. Peck, S. M. Hunter and A. R. Van Cleaf were presented.

There was no choice on the first ballot but Pattison led by more than 150 votes.

Pattison was nominated on the second ballot.

On the second ballot Hugh Mather was chosen as candidate for Supreme Judge.

James A. Rice of Canto, was nominated for Attorney General.

Charles B. Mason, of Hamilton county, was nominated by acclamation for State Treasurer.

For member of the Board of Public Works Patrick C. McGovern of Muskingum county, was nominated by acclamation.

After the adoption of the roster as the party emblem and authorizing the State committee to fill any vacancies, the convention adjourned after a continuous session of six hours.

CONVENTION HALL, Columbus, Ohio, June 28.—Chairman McKinney of Marietta, of the State Central Committee, called the Democratic State Convention to order today, introducing M. A. Dougherty of Lancaster as temporary chairman. Mr. Dougherty said in part:

"The Democracy formulated its demand for the extension of the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission to regulate rates before the Republican party awoke to the injustice and wrongs inflicted upon the public by the carrying companies. The coalition between the Republican party and these carrying companies is so well known and of such long standing that there is justification for the conclusion that the growing public sentiment has whipped that party into a pretense of activity only against its own will.

"It has been the historic position of the Democracy, a position now firmly held by it, that corporate power created by the state to subvert the public welfare is always subject to the control of the government whose creature it is. And the remedy of the Democracy is regulation and not governmental ownership.

"Whenever Democracy shall cease to contend against the constant aggression of privilege pressing on with its ever-tightening coils, whenever the Democracy shall no longer marshal its legions in the defense of equal rights and shall haul down its flag in inglorious surrender, then the day of governmental ownership and the stagnation and decay of socialism is at hand. The last resort of the people against the oppression of privilege is governmental ownership. No man who knows the history, the teachings, the traditions and principles of the Democracy dare associate its name with that of Socialism. Between Democracy and Socialism there is no peace and no reconciliation.

"Socialism, like tariff, trusts, monopoly, privilege and corruption, comes trooping from the poisoned womb of Republican policies.

"Surprise is expressed that a Democratic club in Chicago should have entertained the President. But Democrats know what Republicans dislike to hear, and if the President is now being borne on the crest of the popular wave, it is because it is understood that he sanctions three significant planks in the Democratic platform, and proposes to employ all the power of his administration to transportation rates and the reduction of tariff, each and all of them Democratic to the core; and to do this against the controlling influences of his own party. Popular favor was never so showed upon President Roosevelt as it is when sowing the Democratic seed in Democratic soil prepared for him by Democratic hands.

"The Democracy faces the future with hope, with courage and with confidence. Time and the progression of events will vindicate its principles."

Mr. Dill was frequently applauded and the mention of William J. Bryan was greeted with a storm of cheers. Mayor Tom Johnson brought up again the planks on which he was defeated last year and today won by a vote of 11 to 9 on that declaring for taxation of railroads as other property is taxed, although he was defeated, 8 to 12, on the two-cent railroad fare proposition.

The temporary organization was made permanent.

The platform was adopted as presented. It is as follows:

"The Democracy of Ohio in convention assembled announce the following declaration of principles:

"We note with satisfaction the determination of the national administration to purchase supplies for the Panama Canal in the markets of the world and not pay tribute to our protected monopolies. We trust that the time may soon come when the common people of this country may enjoy the same privilege and not be compelled to pay the manufacturers for the necessities of life a higher price than the articles are sold for by the same manufacturers to foreign purchasers.

"We demand of our representatives in Congress to aid in the enactment of such laws as will prevent all rebates and secret contracts by railroads and will guarantee the same service to every citizen.

"We favor the conferring upon the Interstate Commerce Commission of the power, when it finds a rate unreasonable, to fix a reasonable rate.

"The Democratic party pledges itself in this State election, if successful, to use its utmost endeavors to eliminate the graft and political corruption that has been nourished and fastened upon the State by the Republican party in the last few years. We have seen the blighting effect of boss rule in one of our cities and we call upon the voters irrespective of party to unite in preventing its permanent lodgment in control of our State.

"We believe in free and unqualified home rule, free from State interference, each city, town and village should be allowed to decide for itself all matters of local policies, especially as between public or private ownership of all public utilities, including street railways as well as water works and lighting systems, and that provision should be made for submitting such questions to the people upon request from a reasonable number of voters, and at such elections the majority shall decide; such public ownership should be safeguarded by the merit system of appointment and tenure of office so as to prevent the breaking up of political machines and the perpetuation of boss rule.

"We declare that the present laws for assessing the property of steam railroads and other public service corporations should be so changed as to compel the assessment of these properties at not less than their saleable value and to prevent their evasion of just taxation.

"We favor the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people.

"We favor the initiative and referendum, especially with reference to the issuance of municipal and county bonds and the granting of public franchises."

The chairman read a communication from J. R. McLean resigning his membership in the National Committee. The resignation was accepted. In answer to a question, the chairman said that the vacancy would be filled temporarily by the National Committee and permanently by the delegates to the next national convention.

DECIDES AGAINST BUILDERS

Opinion Tends to Diminish Funds to Be Collected.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Judge Seawell handed down this morning an opinion of great importance to contractors, material men and mechanics. He holds that Section 1200 of the Code of Civil Procedure is unconstitutional, and the result of his decision is to diminish materially the fund upon which material men and mechanics can hope to recover for materials furnished and labor performed in cases where a contractor fails to carry out his contract or abandons it before completion.

The particular suits are fifteen consolidated cases, representing between thirty and forty claimants. The sums sought by these claimants aggregate $10,000, exclusive of costs and counsel fees. The title of the deciding case is Jocelyn vs. Oxnard, and the contractor who abandoned the work on the new home of Robert Oxnard on Broadway, near Buchanan street, were Williams Bros.

In December, 1899, at the time of the abandonment, Mr. Oxnard had paid $9,150 on the total contract price of $12,000. Immediately thereafter the liens were filed, aggregating $10,000, and Mr. Oxnard then completed the building as economic as possible, depositing in court the sum of $1,850.15, the difference between the total actual cost and the contract price.

The code section which Judge Seawell holds unconstitutional provides that when a contractor fails to complete or abandons his contract before completion, the portion of the contract price applicable to the liens of others than the contractor shall be fixed by deducting from the value of the work done and materials delivered on the ground the sums of money paid and actually due at the time of abandonment, the total actual cost and the contract price.

Under this decision the contractor should not be obliged to accept the materials delivered on the ground, and finally that the sum to which the contractor is entitled should be limited to the cost of the building from the contract price, the owner having the privilege of completing the building himself. The theory that the contractor should be called upon to pay more than the original contract price for building.

TRIES TO COMMIT SUICIDE

Launch Engineer Plunges Into Waters of Bay.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—John H. Stone, a launch engineer in the employ of Henry Peterson, boatman, attempted suicide by jumping into the bay from the deck of his launch at 3:30 o'clock this morning. He was rescued by Policeman A. L. Martien of the Harbor station and was taken to the Harbor emergency hospital for treatment.

Officer Martien was standing on the dock this morning watching the launch of which Stone is the engineer, pulling out of the slip. Soon after the boat got well under way, Stone stepped out of the cabin and up on the deck. He stood at the bow for a few moments, then tossed his cap on the deck and plunged headlong into the water. From the deck of another launch the policeman effected his rescue, but Stone fought hard to break away from him and it was only after a desperate battle that he was finally pulled up on the dock.

Stone was transferred at once to the Harbor hospital and was there treated for submersion. He refused absolutely to make a statement to the officer and explained that his attempted suicide was not the affair of any one but himself. He has been in the employ of Peterson for a number of years and has always been regarded as a steady, reliable man. He had never talked to his fellow workmen of suicide and they are at a loss to account for his actions, unless he has become suddenly demented.

FOR WESTERN PACIFIC

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Jas. G. Jefferey, the son of President Jefferey, of the Western Pacific, arrived late last night in the city and registered at the St. Francis Hotel. Mr. Jefferey, when seen this morning, said:

"I am a lawyer and am not a railroad man. I am trying to make an honest living. He added with a smile, 'Well, my father is most anxious to come out to San Francisco, but he is so tied up with a multitude of affairs in New York that he is unable to leave. He may possibly be left here in the course of the year. Well, I am here partly on business and partly on pleasure.'"

Mr. Jefferey would not say whether he was here on Western Pacific business, but he was here for the Western Pacific officers early in the morning with J. P. Valle's secretary, it may be presumed that he has some business to transact in connection with the new road.

Mr. Jefferey is also impressed with the idea of the gratitude that Californians should display to Mr. Gould for building to the Coast, and prophesies that there will be quite a revolution in railroad building in the West. The Western Pacific began to ruin the State today for the East, will go tomorrow, as there is business which he has to transact in connection with the new road.

LAYMANCE FORFEITS TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—J. Walter Laymance, the Oakland politician, who insisted that his chauffeur, Floyd Free, must pluck feathers from a peacock's tail that his fair companion might have the plumage for her hat while the couple were touring Golden Gate Park during the early morning hours about a week ago, forfeited $200 cash bail in Judge Cabaniss' department of the Police Court this morning. Laymance gave himself up late yesterday afternoon, depositing $200 in gold for his appearance, and hastened back to Howard Springs, where he has been spending the summer.

The companion of Laymance on the early morning tour was Miss Lillian Winters, who says she is an actress. It was just sunrise, and as the automobile glided along the smooth park driveway Miss Winters expressed a wish for some peacock feathers to adorn her hat. The automobile was stopped, and acting under the direction of Laymance, the chauffeur got out, plucked a few feathers from the tail of a peacock, and handed them to the actress. When Free was arrested he first refused to tell who was out in the automobile, but finally gave the name of Laymance and his companion, and a warrant was issued for Laymance's arrest. Free this morning, but was released on his own recognizance, and the bail money forfeited by Laymance will probably be applied to his fine.

ACCUSED SENATOR

Causes Mitchell to Turn Pale.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 28.—The case of United States Senator Mitchell will not be sent to the jury, from present indications, before late Thursday afternoon. United States District Attorney Heney occupied all the morning session with the latter half of his argument to the jury and will not finish until late in the afternoon.

Judge Bennett and Senator Thurston are yet to follow with the main argument for the defense.

Mr. Heney in his argument has been tracing the transactions of the firm in relation to land matters from the time the Senator asked for a copy of the firm's books covering the period from November, 1901, until June, 1902. His arraignment of the defendant with Heney charged with having been the cause of perjury of Judge Tanner and his son and whom he charged with having attempted to suborn his private secretary, Harry Robertson, to testify in accordance with the false defense outlined and flayed mercilessly and caused the face of the defendant to flame and pale with passion.

SENATOR PERKINS' PROPERTY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—There are card cases in the property room at police headquarters belonging to United States Senator George C. Perkins and his daughter, Miss Mae Perkins.

A number of years ago the cards of the Senator and his daughter were found by Policeman Thompson of the Southern station squad, lying on the seat at the safety station, Market and Kearny streets, last night. It is believed that Senator Perkins and his daughter were waiting for a car at the station to take them to the ferry building, and in their haste forgot to pick up their card cases. Policeman Thompson picked up the property and it is now in the custody of Property Clerk Dinan.

FUNERAL OF JAMES MOONEY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The funeral services of James E. Mooney, the well-known contractor, who succumbed yesterday to pneumonia after a brief illness, were held at 9 o'clock this morning at St. Paul's church. His unemittered acceptance of the sorrow caused twenty-five years ago by the disappearance of his daughter Annie, and his persevering, albeit fruitless, search for her during the ensuing years, in addition to his sterling qualities of manhood, have commanded the affection and respect of all who knew him. The deceased leaves seven daughters and one son, but his grief for the loss of the little girl so long ago has never been assuaged.

SHOT A SAILOR

How the Mutiny Was Started on Russian Warship.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 28.—Later advices from Odessa announce that the mutiny on the warship occurred on account of the summary shooting of a sailor by order of the commander of the battleship. The sailor, it is said, presented a petition signed by the crew demanding better food.

The report that the crew murdered the officers is not confirmed. The sailors this morning carried the body of their comrade ashore.

This was followed by intense excitement. Other dispatches from Odessa say the strikers have evidently been successful.

They have stopped the street cars and other traffic. The estate owners of the provinces, especially those of Kuznetsov, are looking to the city on account of agrarian disturbances. Thousands of strikers and others assembled at the quay with bare heads and viewed the corps.

When a detachment of soldiers attempted to disperse them a crowd formed a ring round the coffin and doted the Cossacks. Some fighting is reported to have occurred, but no details were obtainable as this dispatch was filed.

BURGLAR CAUGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Detectives Wren and Reynolds have captured the burglar who looted the residence of H. T. Chadbourne, at 1220 Taylor street, on the night of June 10th and have recovered all of the stolen property, consisting of silverware and jewelry valued at nearly $1,000. The guilty man is William M. Sanborn, who already has a prison record, and he was booked at the City Prison this morning on a charge of burglary.

The Chadbourne residence was burglarized in the absence of the members of the family, and plate and jewelry valued at nearly $1,000 was carried away. Detectives Wren and Reynolds were detailed on the case by Captain of Detectives Burnett, and from their investigation they reached the conclusion that the burglar was an expert in this line. Sanborn was the only one known to be in this neighborhood whose methods were those followed by the Chadbourne burglar, and he was finally located. He at first denied his guilt, but finally admitted to the officers that he was the man wanted and told them where the plunder could be recovered.

BRITISH SHIP IN DANGER

Arrives in Port After Hard Battle With Storms.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Battered by storms and with much of her rigging gone, the British ship Swanhilda limped to an anchorage in the harbor at Rio de Janeiro this morning. News of the vessel's safety in port was announced in a brief dispatch to the Merchants' Exchange. The ship was for weeks on the overdue list and seafaring men had about given her up for lost. She sailed from Greenock for Coquimbo on the Chilean coast, 154 days ago, and she was so long without any word from her that insurance men holding risks on her were willing to set reinsurance on her at 10 per cent.

The Swanhilda is well known at this port. It was on that vessel that Murderer Butler sought to escape from the Australian police, when he shipped on her as a sailor at Newcastle for this port, after committing numerous murders in the Australian gold fields. Steam, however, was faster than sail, and when the ship came in through the Golden Gate three peace officers, from Sydney and a sailor of the local police officers tumbled over the rail of the ship and a few minutes afterward Butler was in irons.

On board the Kaiser Wilhelm the Baron and Baroness were assigned to a luxurious state cabin.

CLEVER LITTLE STORIES.

During one of the frequent revolutions in Hayti the commander of the government forces at Port au Prince made a requisition on the authorities at Cape Haitien for men to aid in putting down the uprising. After a somewhat rough experience of two or three days, the authorities got together the required number of men and loaded them aboard ship. Then the following message was sent: "Commander Government Forces, Port au Prince—Sir: I send you per steamer Saginaw today 100 volunteers. Please return the ropes with which they are tied.—Commander at Port au Prince."

A medical journal has a story to the effect that a woman who was seriously ill awoke one night to find the nurse sitting at the foot of her bed smoking a cigarette and reading a novel. Greatly startled, she raised herself up in bed and cried out: "What in the world are you doing, nurse?" To which the nurse dropped cigarette and novel in amazement, replied: "Good gracious! I thought you were dead."

An English church warden was reading at a vestry meeting a list of subscriptions to the parochial funds. The list began as follows: "The vicar a guinea; Mrs. A., half a guinea; an anonymous donor, myself, 25 shillings."

DECLARE ANOTHER STRIKE

More Trouble is Feared
in Russian
Poland.

WARSAW, Russian Poland, June 23.—A strike was declared today at the coal and iron mines, foundries and factories in the districts of Dombroa, Stomilno, and Sosnowice.

WARSAW, Russian Poland, June 23, 2:05 p. m.—The conditions at Lodz are unchanged, excepting that most of the workmen have returned to work. Out of 65,000 men about 7,000 from twenty-two factories remain out.

Marital law still prevails, the streets are constantly patrolled and the liquor shops are all closed.

The universal condemnation of the strike movement at Lodz has had the effect of quieting the situation and it is expected that the remaining strikers will soon resume work.

There was a relocation on the Warsaw Bourse today of the sum that the mobilization of troops in Russian Poland had commenced and possibly might be expected in Warsaw in two days, and it caused considerable excitement.

It is claimed that if mobilization is attempted here it will lead to serious disturbances.

DECLINES POST.

NEW AUTO WILL BREAK RECORD

NEW YORK, June 23.—Walter Christie has completed the construction of the most remarkable automobile ever built in this country. It is a direct, drive car, with four cylinder engines driving direct into the hubs of the front wheels and similar engines driving direct into the hubs of the rear wheels. The engines take the place of the two axles and the driver sits between them. The car is practically a double-ended and will travel as fast backward as forward, though steering is done with the forward wheels only. Either engine may be operated independently of the other and either is calculated to give a speed of a mile in fifty seconds. The combined power will be about 130 horse.

The car is built low, the wheel base is short and the weight is only 2,100 pounds. This last is a surprising feature of the machine and is accounted for by the absence of axles and heavy running gear.

There was no report that the car is of dumpy looking and has not the appearance of a record-smasher.

Christie, whose direct drive machine, built on the same principle, but with only a single engine, established a mile record of forty seconds for American gasoline cars on a Florida beach last winter, is confident that his new creation will place the record at a mile in thirty seconds, or at the rate of 120 miles an hour. The car is to be given a trial on the Morris Park track this week, and if found satisfactory will be placed in the races there on July 1. It is also to compete for a place on the American team in the Vanderbilt cup race. Christie will drive the car himself.

TWO GAMES OF CHESS ARE PLAYED

OSTEND, June 23.—Two games, adjourned from previous rounds, were decided in the international chess masters tournament today, when Janowski drew his game with Teichman and Marco defeated Leonard.

HIS DEFALCATION REACHES $70,000

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—A statement of the amount of the defalcations of former Tax Collector Edward J. Smith, as discovered to date, has been furnished the Grand Jury by Douglas Young, the accountant of that body. In his report the accountant draws the attention of the jury to the fact that the sum of Smith's defalcations is very probably greatly in excess of the amount given, as the examination of the defaulter's accounts and papers was a very superficial one. The Grand Jury's accountant and those employed by the National Surety Company, the corporation which went on Smith's bond, do not exactly agree as to the total amount of the former's Tax Collector's defalcations. Young gives the total amount of $67,362.96, with a balance in the Western National Bank of $472, while the surety company's men state that it is $69,658.15, a difference of $2,295.19 in the two accountings.

The accountants all agree as to the various amounts which Smith took from the city's funds and the difference between the two totals is caused by the Grand Jury's expert crediting Smith with a payment to Treasurer McDougall to make good a deficit in the Crocker estate taxes.

In the report Accountant Young states that he is perfectly satisfied that the sum given does not represent the full amount of Smith's defalcations and adds that the work of finding the actual amount of the shortage is wholly in the province of the city officials.

Much interest was taken in the wedding and the church was filled, the guests including Ambassador Lord M. White-Laid, the staff of the American Embassy and most of the American friends in London society, besides friends of the groom's family, notably among them being Princess Christian and the daughters of Princess Henry of Battenburg.

The Archbishop of London, the venerable William Macdonald Sinclair and the rector of St. George's Church officiated. Mr. Phipps gave away the bride, who was attended by two train-bearers and eight bridesmaids.

MUSICIANS TO HONOR HIS MEMORY

ALAMEDA, June 23.—Two brass bands will participate tomorrow morning at the funeral of George Schellhaas, a well known musician of this city and San Francisco, being a member of the Golden Gate Park band for twenty-three years. He was very popular among his fellow musicians, and many of his friends will gather to honor his memory.

Arrangements have been completed to have the Park band attend the funeral and play in front of his late residence, the sonata, "Nearer My God to Thee" under the direction of Paul Steinhilber.

In addition to the band the Musical Union of San Francisco will take part in the funeral procession. The funeral will take place at 8:30 a. m. from the undertaking parlors of Smiley & Gallagher, and services will be held at St. Joseph's Church at 10 o'clock, followed by interment at St. Mary's Cemetery.

An inquest was held this morning by Coroner Mulvihill at the request of Dr. A. A. Stafford, who had attended the deceased. The verdict was that death was accidental.

DIVORCE CASES.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—Carrie C. Wilson wants a divorce from Herbert E. Wilson, a contracting plasterer, for cruelty and neglect. She owns flats on Diamond street near Seventeenth. Mrs. Wilson says that, although she has for a long time been constantly under the care of a physician, her husband has compelled her to perform laborious household duties, to feed his horses and to walk long distances, he refusing to give her a car. She also complains of his familiarity with a young woman residing near the Wilsons.

Modesta Lechner has applied for a divorce from George Lechner, a printer, at 519 Filbert street, for cruelty. She says that soon after their marriage he made love in her presence to Marguerite Nolset at a party, and thereby she was much distressed.

HEIRESS WEBS IN HONOLULU

HONOLULU, June 23.—Miss Alice Campbell, the beautiful heiress of Honolulu, was married on the evening of June 21st to Walter Macfarlane at the Roman Catholic Cathedral. It was the largest and swiftest wedding that has ever taken place in Honolulu. Miss Campbell is well known in San Francisco, where she recently visited with her mother to purchase her trousseau. Not only is she a beautiful girl, but she is an accomplished musician and painter, and many are the good deeds attributed to her charitable actions. She is a daughter of Mrs. Samuel Parker, at whose residence on Emma street a reception was held after the ceremony.

The bridesmaids were Miss Clara Cummings, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss Ada Rhodes and Miss Irene Dickson, while Miss Muriel Campbell, the bride's younger sister, who has just come here for her vacation from Notre Dame College, was the maid of honor. The best man was William Dickson, William Roth, Sam Walker, Frank Armstrong and Arthur McIntosh acted as ushers.

A farewell dinner was given last week to Walter Macfarlane at the Young Hotel. Those present were George Fuller, Faymaster Brown, Frank Armstrong, Prince David Kawanakoa, George Potter, William Dickson, William Roth, S. Walker, C. A. Mackintosh, Frederick Alexander, and William Walker.

The bridegroom is a nephew of the late Ned Macfarlane, former proprietor of the San Francisco Wasp.

The Law and the Automobile.

James H. Campbell, District Attorney of Santa Clara county, disputes the constitutionality of the automobile law enacted by the last Legislature in so far as the right to run automobiles over all public roads is concerned. Under pretense of regulating the running of automobiles on all roads outside of cities incorporated under charter, the law attempted to override all county ordinances passed by boards of supervisors.

By ordinance, the Supervisors of Santa Clara county have forbidden the running of automobiles on the Mount Hamilton road. Mr. Campbell says this ordinance is still valid and in force notwithstanding the act passed by the last Legislature, and he gives notice that he will prosecute all who violate it. The use of automobiles on the Mount Hamilton road is fraught with peculiar danger to persons riding in vehicles drawn by horses because the highway is a mountain grade with many turns. A plunge by a frightened horse over the grade at numerous points would hurl a whole party to destruction.

The effort of District Attorney Campbell to enforce the ordinance in Santa Clara county will be watched with interest elsewhere, for the automobile question is becoming acute in other localities. Chauffeurs habitually bid defiance to both the State law and local regulations in regard to speeding their machines. They do worse, for many of them dash recklessly through groups of vehicles drawn by horses, which frequently become frantic with fright at the noise and aspect of the strange objects. The chauffeur takes the road all to himself regardless of the law, the rights of others and the danger he causes. The speed mania which seems to take possession of the automobilist appears to make him utterly indifferent to the rights and safety of others.

The automobile question has become acute in Yosemite Valley this season. Several bad accidents, due to autos dashing by teams on the narrow grades on the roads around the valley, have been narrowly averted. Only presence of mind and prompt action, coupled with luck, kept frightened teams from plunging over steep grades. Although no serious accident has thus far occurred a number of people have been terribly frightened by the imminent peril to which they were suddenly exposed.

The serious part of the matter is that automobile owners view these frights and dangers with indifference—sometimes with amusement even. "If your horse gets frightened at an automobile don't drive him, but leave him at home," is their way of dismissing controversy on the subject. The public will not have it dismissed so cavalierly. Men who wantonly imperil the lives of others and recklessly violate regulations provided for the public safety should be made to obey the law even if stern measures have to be resorted to. Moreover, they must be made to respect the rights of others and the canons of decency. It must be somehow forced into their heads that the public highways were not constructed for the exclusive use of persons with money enough to buy an automobile and crazy enough to see how fast they can run it.

Lebanon Valley College, in Pennsylvania, has instituted a department of "Applied Christianity." It is not stated whether John D. Rockefeller has been applied to for a donation.

Japan is willing to make peace, but it should not be overlooked that she is preparing to float a new war loan.

Tom Lawson says H. H. Rogers cheated him out of $4,000,000 in copper. According to the story of the transaction as circumstantially related by Lawson, Rogers cheated the former out of that amount in dividing the money the people were unbowed out of.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says "the war party is still full of fight." The operator probably mistook vodka for war. Judging by the way the Japs are pushing Linévitch back the war party in Manchuria is not so full of fight as the St. Petersburg wing of it is reported to be. Maybe it has got its belly full of fight.

Cost of Charity in California.

The last bulletin of the Commonwealth Club dealing with the State charities of California, contains some interesting and instructive statistics regarding the number and cost of maintenance of mentally defectives. In the five State hospitals there were on July 30, 1904, 5497 inmates distributed as follows:

Stockton	1615
Napa	1461
Agnew	1026
Mendocino	615
Southern California	780

Total 5497
At the time there were at large and on parole 280 more, who were still under commitment. The total under commitment was 5777, an increase of 155 for the year.

Compared with other States California has an undue proportion of insane, as the following comparative table shows:

California	Population 1,485,053, insane 5497, ratio 1 in 270.
Ohio	Population 4,575,545, insane 9472, ratio 1 in 438.
Iowa	Population 2,231,853, insane 4020, ratio 1 in 555.
Minnesota	Population 1,751,394, insane 3918, ratio 1 in 447.
Michigan	Population 2,420,982, insane 5217, ratio 1 in 464.
New York	Population 7,268,894, insane 24,187, ratio 1 in 300.

To the number of insane patients in the State hospitals must be added the 513 inmates of the Glen Ellen Home for the Feeble Minded, which make the total of mental defectives cared for at the expense of the State 6010. The cost of the various charities of the State for last year was as follows:

Paid by the State—
Insane	$969,242.22
Feeble-Minded	67,276.65
Home for Adult Blind	44,152.44
Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum	68,528.09
Veterans' Home	146,879.43
Soldiers' Widows	1,740.68
Dependent Children	466,437.00

Total received aid from State . . . $1,764,256.51

Paid by Counties—
County Hospitals . . . $752,801.10
Outdoor Relief, estimated . . . 500,000.00

Total paid by Counties . . . $1,252,801.10

Grand total cost of State Charities paid by taxation for one year . . . $3,017,057.61

The total number of inmates cared for, not including the outdoor poor, was about 31,000 or 1 in 47 of the total population of the State.

California has one almshouse inmate of the several county hospitals to every 527 of the total population, whereas Ohio has one to every 516. But Minnesota only has one to every 3310 of the total population.

The bulletin referred to scores the method of granting outdoor relief in California, which it says is devoid of business principles or investigation worthy of the name. In consequence the bulk of the money expended for outdoor relief is wasted on frauds and deadbeats, and sometimes for corrupt purposes in elections.

Imitations of Mission Architecture.

Charles F. Lummis, editor of Out West, has no love for the lathe and plaster imitations of "Mission Architecture" so prevalent in Southern California. He characterizes them as gaudy, vulgarized counterfeit of the real thing, being wholly distinct in design, plan and material from the structures erected by the early Spanish friars, who built wisely with the materials at hand for the purpose they had in view. They used adobe, tiles and massive timbers for their buildings, which were distinguished by ample spaces and large courts, these features being dictated by climatic conditions and the need for large housing room. The so-called modern mission type of building is a cheap thing of stucco and frame scantling destitute of wide, cool corridors and large patios.

Mr. Lummis gives this opinion of them in the last number of his magazine:

"Southern California is infested and vulgarized with cheap imitations of an architecture so noble, so pure, so sincere that it has worldwide fame, and the imitations are so cheap and so 'tinhorn' that there are no tolerable words to define them. There is not yet in California a single building of that 'school' fit for a moment to compare architecturally with the thing those gray-robed friars built in the wilderness more than a century ago, without 'labor,' materials or money. Each imitation is a little worse than the other, and the Riverside School is rather worse than all the others put together."

Every lover of purity of form and classicism of style will say amen to Mr. Lummis' criticism. The passion for making a New England cottage look on the outside something like a mission church has bastardized and degraded a noble type of primitive architecture peculiar to the land and its earliest European settlers. The imitations now being erected are as different from the missions built by the Spanish friars as the people who erect them are from the early missionaries. These people call their nondescript creations "artistic." They defy both sentiment and taste, and are about as appropriate as would be a stable modeled after St. Peter's.

Our friend with the halo-tinted brow and immaculate gall, Skipio Craig of the Redlands Citrograph, wants to know if "the North is waking up." By North he means the section of California not dominated by the cough of the tubercular immigrant and the blazing mane of Skip Craig. He thinks it strange if the region above the Mohave desert has not waked up, for, as he naively confesses, he has "continued to hammer right along." So you have, Skippy, so you have, but your hammering has not produced any excitement outside the limited space thatched by your raging red hair. Just continue hammering Northern California if it amuses you—it does no harm and disturbs no one. Still Skip's inquiry suggests that he has not used his railroad pass for several moons.

THE LAND OF BY AND BY.

While yet the dawn was breaking up,
And all looked dim around—
And Silence stood as sentinel—
All seemed like fairy ground—
I looked out on the world, and
'Twas sleeping yet—but why,
Came creeping up tall shadows from
The Land of By and By?

They flitted 'cross the wad'n'ing arc;
They ran upon the mount—
Like spectres in the early dawn—
Their number, none could count—
But when the sun had lit the day,
And night had bade goodbye,
Then all had vanished quietly, to
The Land of By and By.

And what are those tall shadows, what!
Illusions—did you say?
No, no, they are the mighty pines
That trembling point the way;
And in circle after circle, they're,
With heads erect and high,
As gnomes, ever pointing to
The Land of By and By.

There are rifts among the purple clouds,
And harbors long and wide,
And silver ships are sailing home
Upon the azure tide;
And gorgeous are the golden peaks
That light the sapphire sky,
And the turrets of vermilion, in
The Land of By and By.

The mighty mountains, tinted in
Pale blue and crimson shades,
And palaces are gilded, in
Soft green and opening glades;
Those sunsets of the Golden West,
Unto the Christian eye,
Point out the happy Mansions, in
The Land of By and By.

PARISH PICNIC PLANNED

PARISHIONERS OF ST. MARY'S TO HAVE OUTING AT IDORA PARK.

The parishioners of St. Mary's parish are anxiously awaiting the event of the season, the parish picnic, which will be held on the Fourth of July at Idora Park. Nothing has been left undone to make this, the first annual outing of the parish, a great success. The ordinary attractions of Idora Park are sufficient to amuse a crowd, but to these many new features have been added to help the picnicers enjoy the day.

NEW FEATURES.
Special attention has been given to the theater, where a unique program will be carried out. Three separate performances will be given, commencing at 2:30, 4:30 and 8:30 p. m. Messrs. Schmitt and Snyder, the famous German dialect comedians, will delight the audience.

The members of the Catholic Ladies' Aid Society, Branch No. 1, will conduct a refreshment booth, where a choice luncheon or supper may be had for the modest sum of twenty-five cents, thus doing away with the necessity of bringing lunch baskets. The ladies in charge of the refreshments are Mrs. Thomas Hogan, assisted by Mrs. W. J. Barrett, Mrs. J. T. Moran, Mrs. J. J. McCarthy, Mrs. M. B. Brady.

The ladies of the Altar Society will provide candy for their patrons, and the members of the Ladies' A. O. H. will look after the soda water and other soft drinks.

BASEBALL GAME.
In the afternoon at 2:30 a baseball game between the Young Phoenix team of St. Mary's College and the soldier nine from Fort Baker will commence. These nines have met before on the diamond, and the close contests of former games insure a very interesting and exciting match on this occasion. The members of St. Mary's team who will be on the field on that day are: Manager Bro. Joseph; players—Francis Dunn, B. Burke, Geo. Haley, John Domergue, Wm. Thompson, Jos. Du Ponce, Reynold Hennes, Arthur Dana, Dickenson Stephens and Edward Burns.

In the afternoon the regiment of the League of the Cross Cadets, who take part in the Oakland morning parade, will be entertained at the picnic and will help to enhance the event of the day.

Many tickets have been bought by people in San Francisco, and a large gathering from that side of the bay will spend the Fourth at Idora Park.

AT NIGHT.
In the evening a grand band concert will be given from seven until ten o'clock, and a special performance at the theater at 8:30, besides other attractions to delight those who wish to spend the Fourth away from the noise and confusion of fireworks. The purpose of this year's picnic of St. Mary's parish is to start a building fund. Many improvements about the property are contemplated and the picnic will be the beginning of the treasury fund necessary to carry on the work.

Sergeant John S. Flynn, L. C. C., assisted by the following members of Co. N, L. C. C.—Lieut. J. V. Fitzsimmons, Corporal Daniel Brearty, and Privates Jas. P. Martin, Jas. E. Doling, Peter H. Nicholas, Daniel Reynolds and John Sheehan—will look after the pleasures of the dance pavilion.

SOCIETY'S REALM

PREFERRED DAY OF WEDDINGS

WEDDINGS OF INTEREST ON BOTH SIDE OF THE BAY.

The calendar for today is crowded with weddings and half a dozen society girls will be added to the list of June brides. Important among these nuptial affairs and planned with artistic care is the wedding this evening of Miss Winifred Osborne, the charming daughter of Mrs. Anna McLaren Osborne, and Everett Brown, which will be solemnized at the home of the bride, 953 Madison street.

None but relatives will attend the pretty ceremony, and the bride will have no attendants. The marriage service will be read by the Rev. W. Hobart, and at nine o'clock the reception to the friends of the young couple will be held.

The spacious hall of the Madison street home will be massed with ferns and lilies and in the parlors and reception room the same color scheme of green and white will be carried out in detail. In the large circular window where the nuptial vows are exchanged there is a bower of ferns and white sweet peas caught with streamers and knots of white tulle.

The dining room has been decorated in brilliant red with a touch of green in the ferns and potted plants. The table will be a pretty study in red, bright blossoms mingled with the greens.

The bride is an attractive brunette and her gown of white crepe de chine is beautifully fashioned and very becoming. The gown is elaborated with Princess Louise lace and the waist is shirred, with full, shirred sleeves. The skirt has a shirred yoke and the skirt and long train are trimmed with rare lace. A veil caught with orange blossoms will finish the bride's costume, and she will carry a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament will be a diamond cross, the gift of the groom.

Mr. Brown and his bride leave this evening for a honeymoon and on their return will occupy the pretty home at Piedmont awaiting them.

PARROTT-McCOMAS.

Society across the bay attended the wedding at noon today of Miss Marie Louise Parrott and Francis J. McComas at Trinity Church. Miss Christine de Guigne was maid of honor and Willis Polk was best man. HIBBERD-ELIASSEN.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Hibberd and Edward Eliassen was one of the interesting events of the week and the ceremony last evening at the bride's home on Orange street was marked by simplicity. The color predominating in the decorations was pink and the pretty effects in that popular shade were noticeable in the dresses of the bride and party and the setting for the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Eliassen will spend their honeymoon in Washington and Oregon, and after October 1 will be at home to their friends in Oakland.

GOLF TOURNAMENT.

Among the prominent society maids and matrons of the Claremont Club who are taking part in the third regular competition of the California Women Golfers' Association at San Rafael today are Miss Violet Whitney, Mrs. E. H. Sherwood, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Rickard, Miss Morgan, Miss Kales and Miss Cook.

MISS MABEL GRACE CROSS

This afternoon at 3 o'clock a very pretty marriage ceremony was performed in St. Joseph's Church, Alameda, which united for life the hearts of a young lady of that city, Miss Mabel Grace Cross, and John B. Gardella of this city.

The ceremony was witnessed by a number of friends of bride and groom, both of whom are highly esteemed in this city and Alameda.

The officiating clergyman was Rev. J. J. Hennessey, who is connected with the church and also a friend of the young people for whom he tied the nuptial knot.

The bride is the daughter of Thomas Cross of 2522 Clement avenue, Alameda, and has been admired for her graces of mind and disposition as well as for her facial charms.

The groom is a native of Placer county, but for several years has been among the most appreciated of the deputies of Recorder Grim's office in this city. His home has been at 1014 Seventh street.

After their return from the honeymoon, which will include a trip to Placerville, the groom's old home, Mr. and Mrs. Gardella will establish their home in West Oakland.

Miss Louise Mahoney has returned from a six months' stay in Santa Barbara and Pasadena, and is the guest of Mrs. R. A. Bray at Piedmont.

HEALTH HINTS.

Rub the hands with a stalk of celery after peeling onions in order to remove the clinging and obnoxious odor.

Milk will remain sweeter for a much longer time if placed in a shallow pan than if allowed to stand in a deep pitcher.

Salt sprinkled over a low coal fire will greatly aid in curling feathers. Shake the plumes constantly and do not hold them too near the fire.

A few slices of bacon fried crisp with fried chicken adds to the flavor of the fowl. The bacon is delicious served in strips over the chicken. If the chicken is not tender boil before frying. This is not necessary with young fowl.

If one objects to the odor of moth balls, sheets of brown paper may be sprinkled with turpentine and laid between the garments in the chest or trunk. Moth balls, however, are much better to use when packing away rugs.

Strawberry plants, with the fruit ripe on the stems, are very pretty for table pieces. They must be had from the hothouses early in the spring. Dwarf cherry and plum trees are also very pretty for the table, especially at this season.

If there is no mullage about, in an emergency take a piece of cold boiled potato and rub it up and down on a piece of paper for several minutes, when it will reach a consistency which will make it as sticky as and an excellent substitute for the strongest glue.

CHARLES WAGNER'S SAYINGS

Following are brief quotations from Charles Wagner's latest book, "On Life's Threshold":

"We belong to humanity, which is a large family, whose principal malady, transmitted the world over to all its members, is a sort of innate savagery toward our fellow-beings. From this chief vice come all the minor vices."

"Be some one; God wishes it. Otherwise there would not be so many different natures and temperaments."

"The trouble with most of us is that we do not realize what we owe ourselves. To appear well, to exert ourselves, to do well in business, we must necessarily think pretty well of ourselves."

"The end of man is to develop his body and brain as much as possible, in order finally to be of service to his fellow-men."

"Education consists in enlightening, directing and disciplining our will, not in breaking it."

"In the moral world the earth on which we build is truth."

"Truth is the salvation of the world. It is the friend of all, even of whom it strikes. Wounds made by truth heal and cleanse; carresses of falsehood poison and kill."

"Each one of us, in a certain measure, holds in his hands the happiness or the health of others."

"Let us not be clouded souls, enveloped in the cold vapors of egotism, but sunny souls, to whom men will come to warm themselves."

"Shame upon you, if you can remain untouched, when around you the simple are deceived, the absent slandered, the orphans defrauded, the rights of the weak trampled under foot!"

"Right must be strong, if we will not have force become right. This ought to encourage every citizen to train himself willingly in the calling of arms, when required."

"To be truly honest one must respect his own wealth as he would that of others, and never use it on his passions, his fancies or his selfishness, but according to his reason and his conscience."

FASHIONS

SOME NEW IDEAS WHICH THE SEASON HAS BROUGHT FORTH.

NEW YORK, June 28.—While many handsome costumes were in evidence at Sheephead Bay on the day of the Suburban, there was very little that was distinctly new.

Black and white combinations seemed to have the greatest popularity, checks and stripes, not to mention pin dots, being worn in great variety. Mrs. Garrett Kip, Mrs. Oliver Bird, Mrs. E. Berry Wall, Miss Henrietta Weatherbee and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock Jr. were dressed in this desirable combination.

The lingerie gown was a close second. Mrs. E. R. Thomas, Miss Cornelia Fellows, Mrs. Joseph Widener, Mrs. J. C. Edgar selecting this summery style of gown, although the day was almost too cool for such sheer materials.

These lingerie gowns, parasols and blouses are most paradoxical affairs. They are just the kind of garments that a man would describe as simple; and simple they are unless you see or pay the bill for them. When one goes into three figures for a little wash blouse of linen I should say we had reached the limit of extravagance. Yet Fifth avenue dealers will tell you that such wash blouses are quite in demand.

It does not make much difference what the material or what kind of lace is used to trim the blouse, one is sure to find a touch of Irish lace somewhere. For instance, a lovely blouse of linen, very sheer and thin, had quantities of Bruges lace let in around the neck and over the shoulders. Below the lace was a beautifully hand embroidered design of wistaria—such a graceful flower. The collar and cuffs, however, were composed of narrow real Irish entre-deux. This fine Irish inserting is very popular.

A fascinating blouse of organdie has the upper part of the waist and sleeves divided into diamond-shaped pieces by this fine Irish inserting, and in each diamond is embroidered a bunch of flowers.

Our fashions are pretty well settled for the season, but here and there one comes across a new idea.

Rather an innovation in feathers is a fringed effect. Many of the more recent hats are trimmed with these softly falling, fringed looking feathers. They are usually placed so as to fall over the hair toward the back.

Miss V. Earle, in "Lifting the Lid," not only has her hat trimmed with this style of feather, but also wears a long bow fringed in pale pinkish mauve of it.

Another new idea is that a hat with leghorn or panama brim shall have a black or colored satin covered crown. For example, a leghorn hat, somewhat on the marquis order, has a round crown and a portion of the brim of black panne. The only trimming is a bunch of white ostrich tips toward the back.

One of the smartest pumps I have seen this season is of black patent leather, with a half-inch band of red leather around the top, finishing in the tiniest of bows at the front. The heels are also of the same rather dull red leather, with black finishing.

Until the other day I had never heard of the auto massage belt, although I now understand that many fashionables wear it, and Baltimore has gone mad over it.

It is not for Madame only; her better half might use it to advantage. No dieting, no exercises and your hips reduced one inch a month. What could be easier? This belt consists of two parallel rows of graceful curves in gold, each representing six fingertips holding a gentle fixed position across the abdomen. These rows are about four inches apart when the body is erect. When bending or sitting the flesh bulges between these rows, which close automatically about two inches, duplicating the kneading motion of a masseur's fingers.

Not one woman in a thousand has sufficient strength of mind to forego all the good things of life and take a rigid course of exercises night and morning. Even if one did exercise regularly and live on toast and salad, there is always the feeling that the moment one stops fat is rolling up.

The bargains to be found in New York these days are really most tempting. Everything is at half price. Our Southern sisters who come North at this time of the year buy the same things at just half the price we New Yorkers pay for them.

One might suppose that embroidered linens were not to be worn at all next year, judging from the reductions that are being made in the shops. However, I do not think next season will see any decrease in the popularity of this most attractive material.—Lady Modish in Town Topics.

NAN PATTERSON'S OWN DEFENSE.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Nan Patterson, "Flordora" girl, who is still under indictment on a charge of murdering "Caggar" Young, her lover, has taken to writing letters to the local papers in defense of herself. Here is an extract from her latest:

"In the character of a woman who has but recently emerged from imminent peril of death, and who has now to begin the battle of life, with the burden of an indictment for murder still hanging over her, I ask permission to correct certain lying statements now in active circulation in various quarters, and to remove from the mind of the public an entirely erroneous impression as to the general conduct of my life since my release from prison.

"It is not true that I have visited any tawdry cafes before or since the tour, which, alas! came to so sudden a close.

"There is no truth in the story that on the night of my release, during a supper, I gave a certain toast, bearing directly on the trial in which I was a defendant. The story is a malicious lie, one of many emanating from a certain clique of enemies in the Criminal Courts Building. These persons are, however, in no sense connected with the District Attorney's office. In pursuance of a pledge made to my mother, I have refrained, and shall to the end of my life refrain, from use of wine.

"My story since I stepped out of the Tombs has been a monotonous record of work and home life.

"The second phase of my letter bears upon my motives in returning to the stage, and as to which again the public have been misled by lying reports.

"I return to the stage for these reasons:

"1. The necessity of earning a livelihood.

"2. Because the stage is my profession and the only calling for which I am fitted.

"3. The necessity of paying my debts.

"4. Because I hold the belief that it is possible for me to take up my career as an actress where I left it when I met the man whose name has been associated with mine.

"My return to the stage is, after all, only a reversion to first principles. It is as natural for me to go back to the stage as for the professional man to return to his desk or the mechanic to go back to his bench.

"I am determined, by ceaseless work and study, to earn an honorable place on the stage. With the help of God I will prove that it is possible for me to build a new life and a new career on the ashes of the past.

"The dreadful days and nights in which I stood in the shadow of death have left an indelible mark on my heart. The mark is deep enough to guide every action of my life, and to keep green in my memory for all time the words of the accomplished jurist and kindly gentleman who presided at my last trial."

SERVANT GIRL IS PUBLISHER OF SONG.

PATERSON, N. J., June 28.—To Lillian Kastah, a young housemaid employed by her aunt in her home in North Main street, belongs the unique distinction of being the first maid on record who has composed and published songs which have been sung on the stages of New York's best theaters.

This young woman, who is 21 years old and whose parents are dead, was adopted by her uncle, who was an Indian physician of Paterson. A year ago, while in the employ of a Miss Kubok of Hokokus, N. J., the young servant girl gave evidences of her musical proclivities by putting in all her spare moments in piano practice. Her mistress, thinking it to be but a hobby and not indicative of any real musical ability, discouraged the girl in her playing.

When, however, she learned from the girl herself that it was her own compositions she was playing, her tactics changed to such an extent that she loaned her maid $25 to secure the publication of a song entitled "A Little Game of Hearts," which song was taken up by Mary Cahill in the season just past, and sung with great success by her in Joe Weber's theater in New York.

Lillian, compelled to work for a living, finds it hard just now to make music her vocation in life. She has published other songs which, though not meeting with the success her first one did, have enabled her to lay by a little sum of money, which will go toward establishing her in her favorite work.

Just now the girl merrily wields her broom to the time of her latest air, confident that the time will soon come when she will be able to sweep the country with that more coveted "broom" called Success.

WOMAN'S OPINION ON "TAINTED MONEY."

NEW YORK, June 28.—A new angle has been given to the discussion of "Tainted Money" by Mrs. William Connell of Staten Island. Before Supreme Court Justice Kelly, in Brooklyn, in response to habeas corpus proceedings brought by the husband, who wished to obtain the custody of his children, Mrs. Connell declared she would never live with her spouse so long as he continued to obtain money, as she put it, by gambling.

Her husband was a good man and won heavily at the race track, she said; but it was against her religious training to use funds so obtained, although Connell left large sums lying about on tables and in drawers for her, she refused to touch it and had returned to her parents, taking along the children.

Justice Kelly advised the woman to return to her husband, the latter having declared to the court that he was in receipt of a regular income, but the woman refused and the writ was finally dismissed.

"Left-overs" of cold meats is to make a sauce with two tablespoonfuls of flour cooked in two tablespoonfuls of butter until nicely browned. Add a cupful of hot water flavored with beef juice or stock and cook until the mixture is smooth. Season with salt and pepper and stir in half a cupful of currant jelly and lastly the meat, cut into small pieces. Just before taking from the fire, three teaspoonfuls of sherry may be added, but this is not necessary. Serve on thin slices of toast.

THE WAY OF THE WORLD.

Now John was rich, and John was old,
And Kate was poor, and Kate was young;
And when John's love for Kate was told,
Why, in his arms herself she flung.

Kate loved not John, though John loved Kate;
Ah, most unhappy groom and bride!
For twenty years John cursed his fate;
And then he pined away and died.

And when Kate's love for Fred was told,

And Fred was free—and rich beside!

NEWS OF THE DAY FROM THE SUBURBS

HE BOOMS BERKELEY ON RAILWAY CARS.

A. H. Herrmann Chosen by Traction Much Building is Consolidated to Prepare Book Going on at For Use on the Line. Haywards.

BERKELEY, June 28.—The University town has a number of mighty enthusiastic adherents, who speak in season and out, for Berkeley, but the palm is believed to have been conceded to A. H. Herrmann, the young really operator, for fervor and persistence in the difficult task of "booming" Berkeley.

Official recognition of Herrmann's peculiar qualities as a booster has come, Herrmann having been chosen to prepare the booklet descriptive of Berkeley which the Oakland Traction Company will circulate in all the traction cars throughout Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda during the month of July.

The Traction people have a new monthly publication called "Trolley Talks." The first number came out this month. In the pamphlet the city of Oakland was liberally advertised, attention being called to its merits as a residence and business town.

Now Berkeley is to have an impetus. The glories of the University section are to be sung by Herrmann in the July number. Herrmann has chosen as the title of his essay "Gateway Homeland."

Herrmann has been a resident of Berkeley for fourteen years, knows Berkeley thoroughly, is young, enthusiastic and optimistic, but withal one of his ground when he writes, and altogether has given Berkeley a boost that any city might be delighted to get. Incidentally, Herrmann hopes that he may call attention

HAYWARDS, June 28.—There is a great deal of building going on here, many of the citizens erecting small residence houses for renting purposes. There is said to be not a single vacant house in all Haywards, and the local capitalists are getting ready to supply the demand.

In Castro Valley many structures are also going up all time. L. B. Sibbey of San Francisco is having erected a beautiful rustic cottage two stories high on the Castro Valley road. The edifice is to be completed by July 4, when there will be a house-warming party.

Contractor Robinson started yesterday to build a large sanitarium for Miss McQuinn Joseph Craig is about to erect a residence on a lot in the Meek tract. Thorup & Assmusen are making good progress in the construction of C. P. Van Dyke on B street.

Work on laying the cement foundations of the Haas Brothers' new brick business block was commenced last week. August Ubbhof has the contract and intends to rush the job. The building is to be one of the finest in Haywards.

Fine progress is being made by L. A. Simonds, the contractor building the new library. The structure is nearing completion, and is one of the prettiest libraries in California. The Mission style is adhered to throughout, the exterior walls being covered with concrete to imitate the adobe of the primitive buildings.

Contractor Ubbhof is building a cottage on A street in the Meek tract for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zambresky. J. B. Lewis has charge of the improvements at the Pavot place. Concrete steps are being constructed as well as a fence.

GIRL TO GET PART OF SUICIDE'S ESTATE

Step Daughters of Schnelle May Institute Contest if the Will Omits Reference to Them.

BERKELEY, June 28.—Freda Brenning, a 15 year old girl of West Berkeley, is the only person to come forward thus far with a claim to any of the estate left by Charles Schnelle, the aged capitalist who committed suicide last night at his residence on California street. A deed to a lot on California street close to Schnelle's home, has been filed by Miss Brenning in Oakland. The value of the property is not estimated. The consideration is said to have been "love and affection."

Miss Brenning was a favorite of the aged German. In the deed to the land which she gave her is a stipulation that the deed was to be filed until after his death. It is not known, as yet, whether Schnelle left a will, disposing of his large realty holdings, or of the money he is known to have had in the bank.

A contest for this estate is expected to be instituted by his two step daughters, Mrs. Fred Offe and Mrs. Lena Socke, daughters of his first wife.

Schnelle was married three times but survived all his wives. He has a sister, believed to be his nearest relative. In life, Schnelle maintained perfunctory relations with his step daughters, according to the testimony of neighbors. It is thought that his attention for John Brenning's family may have led to the making of a will by which they benefit more than through the deed which was filed today.

Today that Mr. Schnelle's estate consists in acreage in West Berkeley, and of money in the First National Bank of Berkeley, and the German Savings Bank of San Francisco. Mr. Schnelle came to America on the same ship that carried the parents of Mr. Schmidt and the postmaster was intimately acquainted with the affairs of the dead man. He says that Schnelle had genuine affection for the Brennings, and for Freda in particular, but he never heard of Schnelle's intention to disinherit his step daughters, or sister, in his girl's favor.

STILL ALIVE

War Correspondent to Tell of Career.

BERKELEY, June 28.—Edwin Emerson, the war correspondent who was reported killed in Manchuria, was in fact, for some months in solitary confinement in Hasebo, having been captured by the Japanese while leaving Port Arthur. He arrived in San Francisco last week on the transport Thomas, and has been secured by the musical and dramatic committee of the university for two lectures on his personal impressions of the war. The first, on the campaign in Manchuria, will be given on Thursday evening, June 29, at 8 o'clock, and as Mr. Emerson was with both the Japanese and the Russian armies, it should be full of interest. The second one week later, will be on "In and Out of Port Arthur." The lectures will be given in Hearst hall and will be illustrated with an unrivaled collection of stereoscopic views from photographs taken in the field during the war.

NEW LIQUOR LAW FOR BERKELEY

BERKELEY, June 28.—Town Attorney Johnson is framing an ordinance reducing the number of saloon licenses in Berkeley to fifteen and providing for the selling of these licenses to the highest bidder at auction. The Trustees have directed him to prepare the statute. In addition to what may be bid at this auction each holder of a license will be required to pay a tax of $500 a year, the license to be valid for three years. There are now twenty-five saloons in Berkeley, twenty-three of these being in West Berkeley and two in South Berkeley. None are permitted within a mile of the University grounds. Included in the new ordinance will be a provision doing away with passages between groceries and saloons, which hitherto have been permitted.

In connection with this matter Town Attorney Johnson has filed a report giving his opinion, as requested by President Rickard, of the limits affected by the mile limit law. He believes that only the University grounds proper are intended to be used as the starting point for the mile limit statute's operations.

SAN LEANDRO WILL HAVE ALAMEDA MAY HAVE A STREET FAIR.

R. W. GEISENHOFER, CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE ON CONCESSIONS

SAN LEANDRO, June 28.—The first meeting of the committees in charge of the arrangements for the Native Sons' street fair next August was held Monday evening at the Masonic Hall. The organization for work was made, and outlining the work to be done.

It was reported that a large number of applications had already been sent in by business houses for advertising space in the programs. Posters advertising the event have already been placed along the road from Oakland to Haywards and San Lorenzo, and other means of making the affair known to the public was discussed.

R. W. Geisenhofer, on the committee in charge of the concessions, stated that seven side shows had already been secured. Among these are: plantation darters, fire dancers from Persia, trained parrots, and a juvenile exhibition. In charge of booking the attractions is one of the agents for the Orpheum Theater.

In the grand parade which starts the show on August 10 there will be all the Native Sons in Alameda county, and many representatives from the parlor in San Francisco, Marin and San Mateo counties.

The work of the different committees was laid out. The ways of raising the money necessary to carry on the project were discussed, but no definite conclusion was reached. Assessing the members was suggested, as well as raising funds by subscription.

Preparations were also commenced for celebrating the Fourth of July. Estudillo Parlor is to go to Haywards on that day and take part in the parade and other exercises. A special invitation was received from Eden Parlor, as well as from the committees acting for the town.

There will be another meeting of the committees next Monday evening at the same place. Reports of progress are to be made and plans discussed for new features, beside those already decided upon.

J. D. Langhorne Has a Plan Which May be Taken Up by the Improvement Club.

ALAMEDA, June 28.—After many attempts to carry out a project through Alameda at last stands in a fair way of having an up-to-date hotel. J. D. Langhorne of 1850 Sherman street has brought a plan before the directors of the Alameda Advancement Association that he thinks is feasible. The directors have not taken any action so far in the matter, but desire to consider it in all its phases.

Mr. Langhorne's scheme is to make the hotel a popular project by disposing of stock to Alamedans, the same to be in monthly installments. Mr. Langhorne estimates that there are at least 3500 commuters in Alameda, and that these could, and in all probability would, contribute at least $2 a month to such a project. This would mean an income of $7000 per month or $84,000 a year. The number of people who would subscribe outside of the commuters would bring the total income up to the $100,000 mark per year.

This in three or four years there would be enough money on hand to build a handsome structure. The directors of the Advancement Association mean to push the matter through. After consideration of the plan. Another improvement club of Alameda was urging the matter of a tourist hotel, but they were without a definite plan of securing one, and the project died a natural death.

The Alameda Advancement Association is composed of business men, and they mean business in the matter of erecting a tourist hotel that will be a credit to the city of Alameda.

Manager John H. Hartog of the Association is conducting a vigorous campaign against vacant weeds in vacant lots and along the sidewalks. He is going to call upon the State Board of Horticulture to exercise their power in compelling property owners to keep their premises and adjacent lands free from weeds. He has placed a startling object lesson in the window of the Association's bureau in Park street. On one side he shows a mass of tangled weeds, on the other a plot of well kept grass. The exhibit is adorned by a sign, reading, "Which?"

ALAMEDA, June 28.—After many attempts to carry out a project through Alameda at last stands in a fair way of having an up-to-date hotel. J. D. Langhorne of 1850 Sherman street has brought a plan before the directors of the Alameda Advancement Association that he thinks is feasible. The directors have not taken any action so far in the matter, but desire to consider it in all its phases.

Mr. Langhorne's scheme is to make the hotel a popular project by disposing of stock to Alamedans, the same to be in monthly installments. Mr. Langhorne estimates that there are at least 3500 commuters in Alameda, and that these could, and in all probability would, contribute at least $2 a month to such a project. This would mean an income of $7000 per month or $84,000 a year. The number of people who would subscribe outside of the commuters would bring the total income up to the $100,000 mark per year.

This in three or four years there would be enough money on hand to build a handsome structure. The directors of the Advancement Association mean to push the matter through. After consideration of the plan. Another improvement club of Alameda was urging the matter of a tourist hotel, but they were without a definite plan of securing one, and the project died a natural death.

BOY INJURED.

ALAMEDA, June 28.—Edward Beech, a boy residing near the corner of Ninth street and Railroad avenue, lies at his home painfully injured as the result of experimenting with an improvised toy cannon, which was made out of a section of a bicycle pump.

Young Beech and a number of chums were amusing themselves by firing the dangerous weapon. He knelt over to ignite a charge, when the fuse flashed, the pump barrel exploded into bits. Bits of paper and tiny particles of metal were blown into the boy's face, severely lacerating the skin. Fortunately he closed his eyes in sufficient time to prevent them from being

MARRIED IN LOS ANGELES.

ALAMEDA, June 28.—Miss Miriam Matthews of 1615 Chestnut street was married yesterday in Los Angeles to Oscar Bryn, a former Alamedan who is now a staff artist on a Los Angeles daily. The engagement has been known for some time, but the wedding comes as a surprise to the couple's many friends. The bride left for a visit to the South on last Saturday, but she gave no inkling that she was to be married during her sojourn there.

Dr. Boltzmann Attracts Attention on Campus

BERKELEY, June 28.—Not the least picturesque figure on the college campus during the summer school session is that of Dr. Ludwig Boltzmann. The leonine head and striking figure of Dr. Boltzmann, appearing on the University campus in the company of other distinguished educators, gives sightseers the first opportunity they have had of seeing and greeting the eminent physicist from Europe. Dr. Boltzmann left the University of Vienna three weeks ago to make the journey to California, prepared to promptly begin the work of instruction in physics for which he was engaged by the University authorities.

Dr. Boltzmann held an informal levee in his apartments at Cloyne Court in the morning, and his greetings were continued when he arrived on the campus. His appearance, to most, suggests the foreign savant, and the hundreds of versatile students had little difficulty in discovering his identity. The iron-gray, bushy hair, the great, massive head, crowned with a hat of evident European origin, the keen, searching eyes with which the savant looked through steel-rimmed glasses at the new world he had entered—these and other characteristics suggested to observers the presence of the eminent physicist whose coming had been extensively announced.

Dr. Boltzmann's work is to be for the benefit of advanced students in physics. Thermo dynamics he declares is the subject. He is esteemed to be the greatest living authority in his field. He took his degree at the University of Vienna in 1867 and has since been occupied continuously in European universities in the work of instruction and experimentation. He has held important chairs at the University of Vienna, Graz, Munich, Leipzig, and is now back at his alma mater, the University of Vienna, where his rank is that of professor of physics.

He compared the climate of California with that of Vienna, saying that it almost rivaled the delightful weather he declares prevails almost continually at the Austrian capital. For the weather of the East Dr. Boltzmann has no words—merely uplifts his hands. He has not before been in California. His lectures at the summer school will be delivered in English.

Remember that a good voice is as essential to self-possession as good ideas are essential to fluent language. The voice should be carefully trained and developed. A full, clear, flexible voice is one of the surest indications of good breeding.

SCHOOL ROMANCE

Principal Marries a Former Teacher.

FRUITVALE, June 28.—Julius C. Hammet, principal of the Dewey School here, was married this afternoon. The wedding was held at the home of the bride, Miss Donna May Whitaker, at 1263 Fourth avenue, in East Oakland. Dr. F. D. McCoy performed the ceremony.

After two weeks spent in the southern part of the State the happy couple will make their home in East Oakland, on Fourth avenue. The husband is to continue his duties as principal.

Mrs. Hammet has taught school in the town of Fruitvale, and has been a successful institution with the profession, and there the acquaintance began which ripened into love. For several years the groom has held the position of honor as trustee with entire satisfaction to the citizens of the district.

CLUB IN OUTING

Members to Have a Day in the Hills.

SAN LEANDRO, June 28.—Preparations have been commenced by the members of the Solo Club here for a picnic in the hills on the Fourth of July. On the committee of investigation have been appointed Horace Black (chairman), and L. D. Critchlow. They are to find out a good place for the outing, make arrangements for conveyances to take the club to the scene.

Near Lake Chabot the picnic will be prepared. Swings and hammocks are to be put up, and a musical program is contemplated. Several games of the club's favorite recreation will be played.

CHURCH SOCIAL

Endeavor Society Gives Affair at Elmhurst.

ELMHURST, June 28.—Refreshments and a musical program were among the attractions at the social given last night at the Presbyterian Church by the Endeavor Society. There were many present and the affair was a complete success in every way.

An admission fee of 10 cents was charged, the money to be used in paying bills and providing for further parish work. The entertainment was in the shape of the following social committee: Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Clark, C. Van Arsdale, Miss Kate Gray and Miss Jessie Eadschelder.

YOUNG SURGEON TO CLAIM BRIDE

BERKELEY, June 28.—At the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Nettie A. Jones, corner of Lincoln and Milvia streets, Dr. Chauncey B. Jones and Miss Margaret M. Matthews will be married this evening. The wedding will be a quiet home affair and only a few intimate friends will be present.

The groom-to-be has just returned from Chicago, where he graduated with high honors from American College of Medicine and Surgery. Miss Matthews' parents are in Alaska and she has been residing at the Jones residence. For the present the young couple will make this city their home.

ACCEPT INVITATION.

San Leandro Company of the Uniformed Rank of the Knights of Pythias is to take a prominent part in the celebration of the Fourth of July in San Mateo. A leading place in the grand parade has been promised them, and the members are busily practicing for a number of fancy drills to be given in the evening. Captain A. J. Lloyd is in charge of the drilling.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Lynch and Dr. and Mrs. Charles Miller returned Monday from their camping trip to the Santa Cruz mountains. They report a very pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Morehouse are preparing to go to Portland early in July to take in the fair.

SPEAKER REED AND THE BARBER.

Thomas B. Reed, when Speaker of the House of Representatives, once went into an unfamiliar barber shop in Washington to be shaved. When the negro barber had about finished he began to try to sell a hair tonic.

"Hair pretty thin, sir," he said, fingering the two or three stray locks that fringed Mr. Reed's bald pate; "been that way long, sir?"

"I was born that way," replied Reed. "Afterward I enjoyed a brief period of hairlike effluorescence, but it did not endure."

The barber gasped and said no more. Later some one told him he had shaved the Speaker.

"Speakah!" he exclaimed. "Don't I know dat? I should say he was a speakah, sure 'nuff!"—Lewiston, (Me.) Journal.

INSTALLS BOARD.

A new switch-board is being put in at the Elmhurst power house by the Suburban Electric Light Company. The current for the company comes along the same wires as that for the huge motor-generator which drives all the cars on the Elmhurst division. Formerly the voltage was lowered for the consumers by the step-down transformers in a switch-house near the power house, but the new transformers have been set up inside the main building. The old ones are to be discarded.
